The Progressive Work.

We are in a time when men must move up, if there is any thing doing. While it is called a Progressive work—The greatest progress for the American peo ple to do, is to return to the grand and noble principals 1776, and establish once more the Triumvirate of Liberty. This Liberty that gives equal rights to all and special privilege to none The liberty that stands again, no more wage slaves in this broad land of ours that the laborer must receive a just recompence for his labor. The Liberty that says a man shall plant his own vineyard and eat the fruit there off—And build his own house and occupy it. The Liberty that will feed the hungry cloth the naked—And bring about one universal Brotherhood.

Dear Ed. Bro. Garrett:— May I humbly beg the preaching of Bro. C. W. Ed privilege of entering into the mds, and Bro. Garrett's wr sacred precincts of your valuable logs almost make me think I am Periodical. Some kind friend listening to him again only more unknown to me, caused to be so entered my dear wife's name on your Roll of Honor for 6 months.

I wish to thank said friend and I except the gift in the spirit of the Giver, though I do not know what I have done to deserve this. In my opinion no one who comes the CRESSET regularly and honestly ponder the words of wisdom which flows so con tinuously from the pen of dear Bro. Garrett can fail to properly appreciate it. It is one per manent to which any young man can worthy turn his or her atten tion. While this state of Cal ifornia leads the world in many ways, I have to admit that we have nothing here in this land of orange and flowers to compare with the CRESSET, though the oranges were pretty badly da maged in the recent hard frosts

Far off it from me to flatter you? A Bro. of mine recently destroy the names of the Ed. bought one which was to cost me I am sure Bro. Garrett's him as much as three hundred too big and broad minded and stands too flat to fit for me. I am in need of money

Is Heaven A Place or Condition?

ANSWER TO QUESTION

NO. 45.

QUESTION NO. 45.

HARTSBURG MO. 2-12-1913
Ed. WORLD'S CRESSET.

I. Heaven a place, or a condi tion?

If it is a place give location?

If it is a condition describe the condition?

Tell now we must proceed to ascain the (place; or) condition, Resp. Thos Coonce.

We answer Heaven is a place and also a condition. First, it is a place for God says.

And he said unto his Disciples This place where I am now is the house of God and this is the gate of heaven. Gen. 28-11

We have in this scripture Heaven as a place and as a house with a gate. Again read

And God said the firmament of Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day. Gen. 1-8

Then God set lights in the Heaven. Please read

And God said Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night and let them be signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years. Gen. 1-14

This proves that Heaven is a place. Again God says.

* In the six hundred year of Noah's life, in the second month & seventeenth day of the month the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up and the windows of heaven were opened. Gen. 7-11

Heaven is a place with win dows. Again we read.

Cast heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it, and that ye bring your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.
Dut. 30-5

Now if earth is a place so is Heaven. Again read

Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of heaven trembled and shook beca use he was wrath. 2 Sam. 22-8

This proves beyond any doubt that heaven is a place. In order to locate heaven. Please read.

For as the heaven is higher than the earth so great is blueness toward them also, as the ps. 96-11 Isa. 65-1

Heaven is then above the earth.

Therefor God says

Thus saith the Lord the heaven is my throne and the earth is my footstool, where in the house that ye build unto me and where is the place of my rest? Isa. 65-1

We could go on, and on giving one scripture after another prov ing up heaven as a place. But we believe we have given sufficient evidence to prove it a place. But we must say that there is three heavens spoken of. Paul was caught up into the third heaven.

But now as to a condition THERE IS A CONDITION TO HEAVEN two are not speaking but on the third heaven. This third heaven is where the first war was, which is spoken of in this manner.

And there was war in heaven Michael and his angels fought against the dragon and the dragon fought and his angels,

And prevailed not neither was their pre vailed any more in heaven.

And the great dragon was cast out the old serpent called the Devil and Satan who deceived the whole world he was cast out into the earth and his angels were cast out with him

And I heard a voice saying in heaven

Now is come salvation and strength and the kingdom of our God and the power of his Christ for the salvation of our brethren is com ing down which awoke them before our enemies and night. Rev. 12-7 8-9-10

Here we have a place specified and also a condition. And unless they are in the condition require d by a just God, they cannot stay in heaven. So we believe that without any further com ment our Brother will see the truth. But should we have not made it plain enough please ask again. For our greatest desire is for our life to be dedicated to the good and welfare of never dying souls. So dear friends do not think that we will get wearied at answering questions. For the night or day is never so long for us to labor for the good of others.

Home Circle Column

Let us try to be generous and kind to our neighbor but above let us be so to our home folks.

There are very different feelings borne within man as well as good and one miserable and au thority.

Here is a note for those who want to be happy instead of miserable.
Forget self entirely, think what others think and want strive to make them happy and do not worry over what people think and say.

Three things to cultivate—good book, good friends and good humor.

A person is in my a good wife who cares to play the piano or dance.

Not so much in the cutting on of airs or size and costly apparel but in the lady or the gentlemen, as does politeness and good manners.

No one ever lost money, temper, character or the esteem of others by being truly polite at home in public gatherings, in business on the street, in school or church.

The person who wantonly puts a thorn in the living heart of a little child will feel the rankling of that thorn in his or her own heart some day, in a wound no later repentance can ever heal.

A man cannot tell what the needs of women and children are, because he is not one of them.
He will remember well enough, however, he did not run to his father, but to his mother in infancy and this will be sufficient argument if he be a fair minded man, to show him that in the management of women and children, women ought to have an authority say.

Discontentments and gloom iness are things to be avoided like the po-tience; cheerfulness and merriment are qualities to cultivate. Before them an noyances will disappear like dew before the sun. A happy disposition is a fortune in itself.
